Advice:

Visit the Accro Park in the High Atlas or take a cooking class in the Medina.

Marrakesh, located in the beautiful environment of the High Atlas. It is also called the “Pearl of the South” with the magic of 1001 nights. The royal city with its mysticism, surrounded by palm trees, orange trees and olive trees, offers visitors masterpieces of architecture, the enchanting splendor of the Orient, a labyrinth of alleys and souks, still traditional crafts. Not to mention the world famous Djemaa el Fna with its storytellers, jugglers and musicians. Welcome to Marrakech – The variety of Oriental life in all its originality!

Day 1 | Arrival in Marrakesh

Welcome to Marrakesh airport. Transfer to hotel for dinner and accommodation.

Day 2 | Marrakesh

Visit the city of Marrakesh, the Palmeraie located in the mountains of the High Atlas, an oasis on the edge of the desert. In this city you will have a feeling of Africa and the Orient at the same time. At the entrance of the city, more than 100.000 palm trees rise and offer a splendid view. The lively souks, the Palmeraie and the red buildings give a desert stamp to Marrakech. You will visit the Koutoubia mosque, a “work of art” of Hispano-Moorish architecture, the gardens of the Menara, the Saadian tombs, the Bahia Palace, Bab Agnaou, the oldest gate of the Medina, the souks, the famous place Djemaa-el-Fna, where all day long, you can find traders, storytellers, jugglers, musicians and card players always on very long lines!
