Day 1 | Tangier - Rabat

Welcome of the group to the port of Tangier by the guide, who will accompany you the next days.

Drive to Rabat, the current capital of Morocco and the residence of the king. Rabat, exerts with its high altitude and picturesque Kasbah, a particular fascination on foreign tourists.

Visit the Royal Palace (from the outside), the unfinished Hassan Tower – the landmark of the city, the Kasbah of the Oudayas and the magnificent mausoleum of the late Kings Mohammed V. and Hassan II. Dinner and overnight.

Day 2 | Rabat - Fez

Trip to Fez and detailed sightseeing of the royal city, the oldest and most important of Morocco.

Fez remains to this day the religious and cultural center of the country.

Here an impressive life of the old town, there are uncountable small workshops.

The tour takes in the neighborhood of carpenters, dyers, tanners, tailors, engravers and going through the regular pounding of boilermakers.

During the visit, you will also see the Moulay Idriss Zaouïa (mausoleum), the Karaouine mosque, the oldest in the Arab world, the Medersa Attarine and the Blue Gate. Dinner and lodging.

Day 3 | Fez - Tangier

After breakfast, departure to Tangier.

During your visit, you will see the new city, with its foreign (Spanish, American and Italian) neighborhoods and Cap Spartel, where the Mediterranean and the Atlantic meet.

Then, drive to the old town and the tour continues on foot.

Look at the Kasbah, the old government house and the main trade route between the Grand Socco and the Little Socco with the various souks.

Then transfer to the port of Tangier.

Advice :

The ruins of the ancient Roman city Volubilis are located in the fields of Jbel Zerhoun, not far from the two royal cities Meknes and Fez. Volubilis is famous for its beautiful mosaics.
